Winter/Spring 2015-2016

Jack & the Beanstalk/ Spring Valley Puppets

November 28

Can beans make wishes come true? They can and do in Jack and the Beanstalk, a puppet production of Michael Graham's SPRING VALLEY PUPPET THEATER.

The program is recommended for Ages 5 and up.

Christmas Punch & Judy/ A Couple of Puppets

December 19

For hundreds of years, the Punch & Judy puppet tradition has been a popular treat. In this updated version Punch & Judy cook up some holiday fun in the kitchen.

The program is recommended for Ages 3 and up.

Fairy Circus/ Tanglewood Marionettes

December 26

Featuring over twenty beautifully hand-crafted marionettes, The Fairy Circus is a showcase for turn-of-the-century-style trick puppetry.

The program is recommended for Ages 3 and up.

Badger Meets the Fairy/ Margaret Moody Puppets

January 2

Mr. Badger is thrilled to meet Blossom, a flower fairy, in the garden. This gentle tale is based on European fairy lore Badger Meets the Fairies.

This program is recommended for ages 3 to 8, and lasts 40 minutes.

Gustafer Yellowgold /Gustafer Yellowgold's Dark Pie Concerns

January 16

Illustrator/songwriter, Morgan Taylor takes an age-old topic and turns it on its ear... or should we say stomach? A totally oddball and unique look at our relationship with Earth's food - A steak on an eye. A love poem to a perfect piece of fruit. A robot made of cake?

The program is recommended for Ages 3 and up.

Cardboard Explosion!/ Brad Shur, Puppet Showplace

February 13

Get ready for a one-of-a-kind puppetry experience! "Cardboard Explosion" brings five original stories to life using nothing but cardboard and the power of your imagination.

Recommended for ages 5 and up

The Snow Queen/ Eulenspiegel Puppets

March 5

Eulenspiegel's adaptation of this beloved Hans Christian Andersen fairy tale uses delightfully crafted miniature Bohemian marionettes that interact on the pages of two extra-large pop-up storybooks.

The program is recommended for Ages 3 to 8

Little One-Inch/ Red Herring Puppets

March 12

Little One-Inch is the story of an old couple whose prayers are answered when they find a small baby by the side of the road. As the child grows in years, he remains very tiny. When he comes of age, Little One-Inch sets off on an adventure using a rice bowl as a boat and a chopstick as his oar.

The program is recommended for Ages 4 and up.

Under the Night Sky/ Puppet Kabob Productions

March 19

Under Night Sky follows three children on journeys united by threads of courage, love and hope.

The program is recommended for Ages 4 and up.

The Doubtful Sprout/ Liz Joyce & A Couple of Puppets

March 26

Learn about the world under our feet in this underground puppet adventure. Tunnel down with Worm and Sprout to discover the mysterious life found inside soil.

The program is recommended for Ages 3-8

This new work was funded in part by a Family Grant from the Jim Henson Foundation
